Re: United States v. Ashley Washington, Dkt. 21CR481-1 / Pro Se Motion for Early Termination

Dear Hon. Judge Koeltl,

I moved the Court pro se back in March to terminate my supervision early. Upon receiving my letter motion, your Honor issued an Order stating that “[the] Government should provide a response to the defendant’s application by April 1, 2022” and that “[the] Government should include the view of the Probation Department.”

No response having been filed by April 1, I contacted my public defender in New Hampshire, Jeffrey Levin, AFD, to ask counsel for the government for his position. Attorney Levin received an email yesterday from the prosecutor, Matthew Hunter, AUSA, in Concord, New Hampshire. AUSA Hunter stated that he spoke with Zondra Jackson, my probation officer, and that she does not object to early termination. AUSA Hunter also said that he does not object to early termination. AFD Levin can be reached at 603-226-7360; AUSA Hunter can be reached at 603-230-2244.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Respectfully Submitted,

Ashley Washington
